(f) if so, details thereof with objectives behind this ;

(g) whether the trade exhibitions will boost our export; and

(h) if so, details thereof and if not, reasons therefor ?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF CIVIL SUPPLIES, CONSUMER AFFAIRS AND PUBLIC DISTRIBUTION AND MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF COMMERCE (SHRI KAMALUDDIN AHMED): (a) Yes Sir.

(b) to (d) : India Trade Promotion Organisation (ITPO) have decided to participate in 17 fairs and exhibitions abroad during 1994-95 which have the approval for budgetary support from Govt. ITPO also propose to participate in 22 specialised fairs on self-financing basis in various countries of Europe, America, Asia and Oceania. The products for display cover wide range of items engineering goods, machineries, automobiles all kinds of consumer goods, garments, leatherwares, gems and jewellery, fashion accessories, agro industries, home furnishings, toys and stationery etc. The foreign exchange earnings from these items will depend on orders obtained by participants at the or later on negotiations held with importers and buyers.

(e) Yes Sir.

(f) "Indexpo '94" is an exclusive Indian exhibition which would be organised by ITPO to introduce Indian products and export capabilities. at Johannesburg, which is the centre of South Africa's market/ business interest. With the opening up of South African market consequent to lifting of the embargo by the Govt. of India, ITPO has sought to expose a variety of Indian products in this promising market.

(g) Yes Sir.

(h) The trade fairs/exhibitions in other countries have given a considerable boost to our exports during the past several years e.g. during 1993-94 the total business generated through 42 fairs abroad as reported by the participants was to the tune of Rs. 1025.62 crores, including 366.32 crores of confirmed business booked.

Closure of Idgah Abattoir Causing Adverse Affect on Export of Meat

3663. SYED SIBTEY RAZI: Will the Minister of COMMERCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether closure of the Idgah Abattoir in New Delhi has adversely affected the export of meat from the country;

(b) if so, details thereof;

(c) whether Government propose to take some steps in this regard; and

(d) if so, details thereof and if not, reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF CIVIL SUPPLIES, CONSUMER AFFAIRS AND PUBLIC DISTRIBUTION AND MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF COMMERCE (SHRI KAMALUDDIN AHMED): (a) to (d) The Hon'ble High Court, Delhi in its order of 18-3-94 ordered that the Idgah Slaughter House must be closed. But if it continues for any reason whatsoever, slaughtering should be restricted to 2000 sheep and goat and 500 buffaloes. The butchers have gone on strike with effect from 23-3-94 in protest against the judgement. This would affect exports, as Delhi is a major centre for supply of meat for exports.

In a separate case, in which the Delhi High Court ordered that the Idgah Slaughter House be closed with effect from 31-12-93 and that a new modern slaughter house be constructed in any area away from the city on or before 31-12-93, the Municipal Corporation of Delhi had appealed for extension of time. The next date of hearing is 29-4-94.

The Government of India have requested Delhi Administration to to set up a new slaughter house.
